

The Collaborative Research Center “Political Economy of Reforms” (SFB 884) is looking for a Student Assistant (30 h/month, Bachelor or Master student) to support the interdisciplinary research project C6 “The domestic foundation of governmental preferences over European politics” headed by Professor Dr. Thomas König in collaboration with the project team.

Who we are:

The Collaborative Research Center 884 is an interdisciplinary institute which is funded by the German Research Foundation (DFG). More than 60 international researchers from political science, economics, sociology, and computer science conduct research in 18 projects. Project C6 specifically focuses on how domestic forces, such as voters and political parties, shape governmental preferences in EU decision-making processes at the legislation, transposition, and enforcement stages.

Tasks:

- Collection and management of datasets with Stata or R
- Data analysis

Qualifications:

- a strong interest in quantitative data analysis
- strong command of English
- A background in Comparative Politics, European Union Politics or International Relations

We offer an invaluable chance for active participation in dynamic research projects on the EU. Working hours are flexible. The wage per hour is 10,01 € for Bachelor students and 11,64 € for Master students.

If interested, please submit short motivation letter (1 page), a CV and transcript of records by 15/09/2020 (applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis) to
